Perfect for commercial, retail, educational, and institutional use, Saturn's Tensor-18™ drying and storage rack combines economy and mobility, making it invaluable for organizing production in even the most restrictive environments.

The newly re-engineered Tensor-18 features thicker gauge steel powder-coated shelves, denser mesh, backstop wires, a retaining strip to hold shelves securely in place, and larger rubber bumpers for additional shelf support and proper spacing.

Deep shelves—18" x 24" (46cm x 61cm)—are spaced for optimal airflow and to hold card stock, posters, signs, frames and other rigid substrates. The Tensor-18 also features Original TrayLock, a positive locking mechanism that secures shelves firmly in place after lifting to access, move, or adjust substrates. The Tensor-18 has four swivel casters for convenience and mobility, and two units may be combined back-to-back for even greater storage capacity.
